

COURSE OF INDUSTRIAL PATTERN MAKING AND GRADING FOR THE APPAREL INDUSTRY.

OBJECTIVES

This course offers students the necessary skills to develop the technological phases of the industrial process in manufactured products. The development and application of the industrial pattern in different clothes, and in the tailoring industry.

At the same time, it poses a broad knowledge of development and projection of the production, while maintaining close ties with the fashion / apparel industry, including several new techniques and advances in machinery and technology that are introduced at a professional level.

AIMED AT

All those people who wish to acquire technical training in the development of industrial patterns for the textile business, allowing them a successful integration into the labour market as specialists in this field.

DEGREE

At the end of the two courses, once the award of "passed" for all the subjects has been achieved and the final project completed, the student will obtain the Diploma in " PATTERN MAKING AND GRADING ", title awarded by the CENTRAL SCHOOL OF FASHION DESIGNERS GOYMAR (MADRID)

PROGRAMME OF STUDY

This training is offered over two courses and includes the following subjects:

FIRST YEAR

Subjects

INDUSTRIAL PATTERN MAKING

INDUSTRIAL PATTERN GRADING TECHNOLOGY

INDUSTRIAL APPAREL MANUFACTURING

PATTERN MAKING (GENTLEMEN)

INTERPRETATION I

INTRODUCTION TO FASHION DESIGN

SECOND YEAR

Subjects

INDUSTRIAL PATTERN MAKING II

INDUSTRIAL PATTERN GRADING TECHNOLOGY II

INTERPRETATION II

WORKSHOP

COMPUTER AIDED PATTERN MAKING

PATTERN MAKING (KIDS)

PRODUCTION

TEXTILE TECHNOLOGY